

Photojournalism

- * Photographers attend games and take pictures for the school yearbook and newspaper.
- * Photographers have won numerous awards through TAJE and the Columbian Scholastic Press Association.
- * Former photographers have become college photographers for UT & Texas A&M.

Why Take Journalism?

- * It looks great on your resume because both publications have been recognized in the city, state, and at the national level.
- * Newspaper and yearbook students attend state and national conventions. Both staffs, including photographers, participate in contests throughout the nation.
- * Former editors meet with current staff members for college and career guidance.

Center
The five-time NBA champs sprouted a committed fanbase from the court

the SPURS

Spurs fans are a diverse group, but they all share a common passion: the San Antonio Spurs. The team's success over the years has inspired a dedicated fanbase that spans across the globe. From the 'Big Daddies' of the 1990s to the current 'The Big Three' era, the Spurs have built a loyal following that is proud to call themselves 'Spurs Nation'.

Chris Madrid's
The larger restaurant embraces the local flavor, blending it with a variety of international cuisines.

Mi Tierra
This place is a true gem, offering a unique blend of traditional Mexican flavors with a modern twist. The atmosphere is warm and inviting, making it a perfect spot for a family meal or a special occasion.

Kuma
This Japanese restaurant is a hidden gem in the heart of San Antonio. The food is exceptional, with a focus on fresh ingredients and traditional preparation methods.

Center
SA's variety of authentic eateries sets it apart from other culinary hubs

the EATS

San Antonio is a melting pot of cultures, and its food scene reflects this diversity. From authentic Mexican dishes to innovative fusion cuisine, there's something for everyone. The city's vibrant food scene is a testament to its rich heritage and its embrace of new culinary trends.

Chris Madrid's
The larger restaurant embraces the local flavor, blending it with a variety of international cuisines.

Mi Tierra
This place is a true gem, offering a unique blend of traditional Mexican flavors with a modern twist. The atmosphere is warm and inviting, making it a perfect spot for a family meal or a special occasion.

Kuma
This Japanese restaurant is a hidden gem in the heart of San Antonio. The food is exceptional, with a focus on fresh ingredients and traditional preparation methods.

PURO San Antonio

The staff highlights what really makes the countdown city a perfect blend of cultures la FIESTA A city-wide event unique to the Alamogordo City. Fiesta embodies SA's originality

the HOT SPOTS These 210 staples are must-sees for tourists, locals alike

The Pearl Located downtown, The Pearl is a vibrant area with a mix of old and new. It's a great place to explore the city's history and enjoy modern amenities.

The Alamo The Alamo is a significant historical site that offers a glimpse into the city's past. It's a must-visit for anyone interested in Texas history.

The Botanical Gardens The Botanical Gardens are a beautiful oasis in the heart of the city. They offer a peaceful retreat with a wide variety of plants and flowers.

Clark Journalism

theCHRONICLE Tom Clark, Vol. 30 Issue 4 December 21, 2007
5150 De Zavala Rd San Antonio, Texas 78249

World affairs students place second in MUNSA, plan to attend New York simulation

Francis Hoggstad
Co-Editor

After two months of preparation, the world affairs students finished at the 11th Annual MUNSA National Simulation in New York on November 18, 2007. The team placed second in the competition, a significant achievement for the school. The simulation involved students from various schools across the country, representing different countries and working together to solve global issues.

Francis Hoggstad
Co-Editor

the Rwandan GOAL

Eric Weiss
Sports Editor

He always knew he wanted a better life. But he never thought of the price he would have to pay. Rwandan Placide Baduri was about to do the impossible.

In Rwanda, Placide played for the under-17 national team as well as a First Division club team. "I played on my club team, Zebra F.C.," Placide said. "I was in a tournament called 'Peace and Love in Our World,' especially for my country, Rwanda. At the beginning, I scored four goals in the game and at the end I had 20 goals."

Rwanda facts
65 total goals
35 (5-16)
52 population that enters below $1 a day
1992-2006
Rwanda continued on page 11.

JIM DART, POSITIVE INFLUENCE ON STUDENTS

Melissa Hoggstad
Co-Editor

"Happy Monday!" He looks so full of life, so full of energy. It's a small town, but the words "Happy Monday" are heard every day. Jim Dart is a local resident who has made a positive impact on the community. He is a dedicated volunteer and a supportive member of the local church. His presence is a source of inspiration for many people in the town.

Relative to his, a small town, Jim Dart is a local resident who has made a positive impact on the community. He is a dedicated volunteer and a supportive member of the local church. His presence is a source of inspiration for many people in the town. He has been involved in various community projects and has helped to improve the lives of many people. His positive influence is a testament to the power of one person to make a difference.

Jim Dart full.
Photo by Melissa Hoggstad

Why 2007 rocked!
The best CD's, movies and things that just couldn't be left out.
page 9

A world away
Students teaches in Africa for 10 days.
page 8

Scoring hoops
Girls' basketball begins new season.
page 11

Former Students

- * Former publication students have been accepted to Harvard University, Northwestern, University of Missouri at Columbia, NYU, UT, Texas A&M, & many more.
- * Former students have interned at Texas Monthly Magazine, Teen Vogue, the San Antonio Express-News, Chicago Tribune, & more.
- * Former newspaper editors include: three valedictorians and four salutatorians.
- * Former Clark journalism students have become professional journalists, working at the Washington Post, CNN, Teen Vogue, and Google.
- * Former editors are editors as well photographers at various university publications such as UT's The Daily Texan, The A&M Battalion, The Harvard Crimson, & Norte Dame's The Observer.